

NICK JOHNSON, MSSW/CSW, obtained his Bachelor's in Psychology and Counseling in August of 2013. Nick then completed Master of Science in Social Work at the University of Louisville, Kent School of Social Work, in 2018. Presently, Nick is practicing as a child and family therapist while pursuing his LCSW licensure. Nick has strong interest in working with persons who have experienced issues addiction and substance abuse and has a Graduate Certificate in Chemical Dependency Counseling from Morehead State University. He is a a certified instructor for the 20-hour Kentucky DUI curriculum Prime for Life, a certified DUI assessor, and the Program Administrator for our Substance Abuse program, Wilson Place.

Nick began his employment with Wilson Counseling as a Targeted Case Manager. Additionally, Nick is employed by Morehead State University as a Research Coordinator working with the Kentucky state Drug Courts. Nick comes to Wilson Counseling after having worked at LifeSkills Inc. in Bowling Green as a Supported Employment Specialist, where he helped people who suffer from severe mental illnesses find and maintain meaningful employment. Nick also worked part-time as a Consumer Directed Option Michelle P. Waiver provider, where he provided community living supports to children with special needs.

Community advocacy includes:

- Warren County Youth Sports
- Preschool Ministry Volunteer
- Kentucky Reentry Program (2013)
- Community Action Refugee Mental Health Roundtable (2014)