

Ashley Adcock, APSS, obtained certification to become an Adult Peer Support Specialist from Northern Kentucky University in January of 2023. As a peer support specialist, I advocate for people in recovery by sharing resources and helping build skills that will lead a productive life in sobriety. I currently provide peer support services for Wilson Counseling and Robin's Nest Sober Living.